1. Come with all your ju-bi-lant sound,

mus-ic of ma-jest-y re-nowned.

prais-ing the Rock of our sal-va-tion.

Go out from your midst as you hold these ves-sels, like the ones of old,

filled with a thank-ful med-i-ta-tion.

2. For our King is great a-bove all.

In the be-gin-ning, we re-call moun-tains were mold-ed by the o-ceans.

Bow down to our Ma-ker with awe,

who guides us through the grass-y draw,

led by a blend of gen-tle mo-tions.

3. Mer-i-bah and Mas-sah would blaze out to the sheep of form-er days, if on-ly once they'd seek my par-don.

But, lo, they chose for-ty long years

as dou-ble-deal-ing mu-tin-eers, hearts that were tru-ly meant to har-den.
