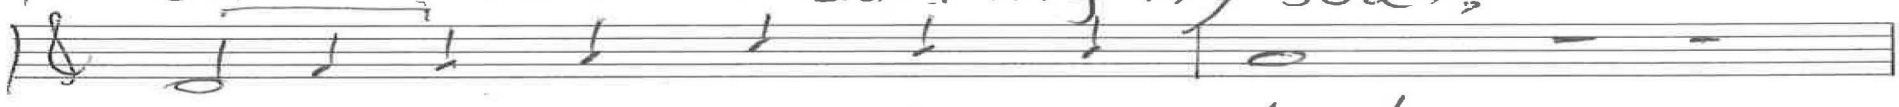
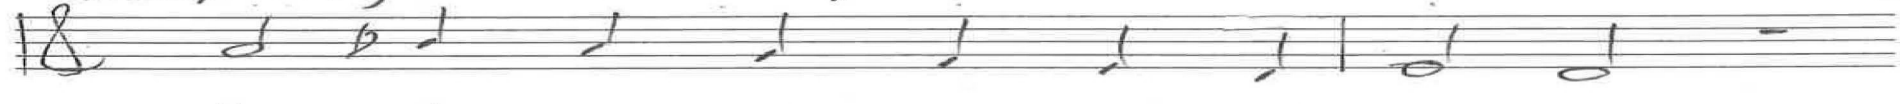
1. God a-lone is calm-ing my soul,

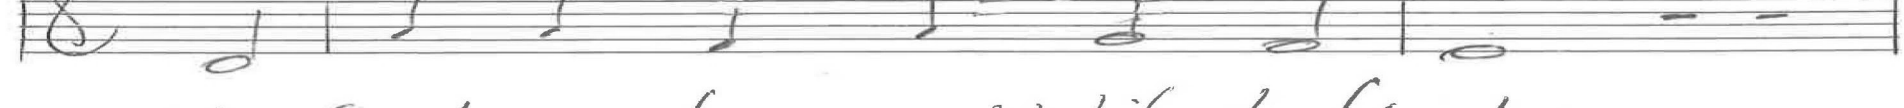


keep-ing our deal-ings in con-trol,



fair play, what-ev-er we're de-serv-ing.

The Lord is as so-lid as rock,



the for-tress where we'd like to flock,

faith-ful to save and nev-er swerv-ing.

4. Peo-ple, find your shel-ter in God, not in the rick-et-y fa-çade,
trust in the pow-er of per-sua-sion.
You lord-ly ones, think what you owe.
As riches on for-ev-er flow, pull at the reins with-out e-va-sion!

5. Av-erage man is fat-ed to bear such a re-sem-blance to the air.
Rich ones are known by what they hi-re.
Since ev-ery-one leans and has sinned,
is frag-ile as a puff of wind,
put no more fu-el on the fi-re.

6. God, you've spok-en once from your throne, you are the Lord whose face has shown love that's sup-port-ed by your pow-er.
I've heard it said twice that you'll pay all peo-ple as they work and pray, though they be fad-ing like the flow-er.
