1. My heart is pre-pared, O my God

I mean to sing the news a-broad.

The harp that I'm per-form-ing on!

I'm stir-ring the light of the Dawn!

Your faith-ful-ness soars to the peak,

your ar-dor to clouds, when you speak

of res-o-lute seers and their stories

that sav-or your name and its glo-ries.

2. Bring so-lace to those who would stand
 in She-chem by your own right hand.
 Then throw your san-dal o-ver there.
 our ar-mies for war to pre-pare,
 with E-dom a shout on the brink
 and Mo-ab to wash in, a sink.
 With God will we fight and be dar-ing,
 like he-roes, our foes ev-er snar-ing.
