The Lord brought us back
Chris Nelson 2017 Psalm 126 Chris Nelson 2017

1. The Lord brought us back, as we'd dreamed,

to Zi-on, sud-den-ly re-deemed,

with laugh-ter that had once been stilled,

with song as our com-pan-ions build.

Hear how our riv-als kept main-tain-ing

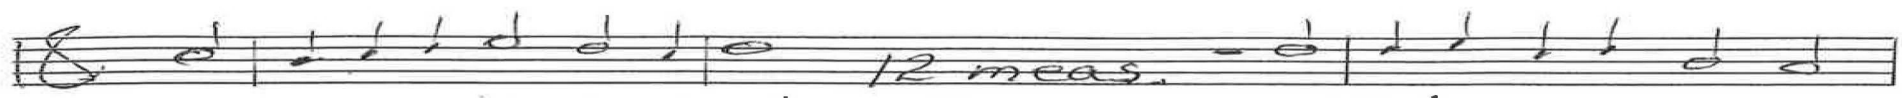

God o-ver peo-ple must be reign-ing,

with deeds up-on a stage by plan,

the joy-ful-ness with which we ran!

Interlude - Genevan 126

2. Yes, let us run home like a great

tor-rential down-pour in a spate,

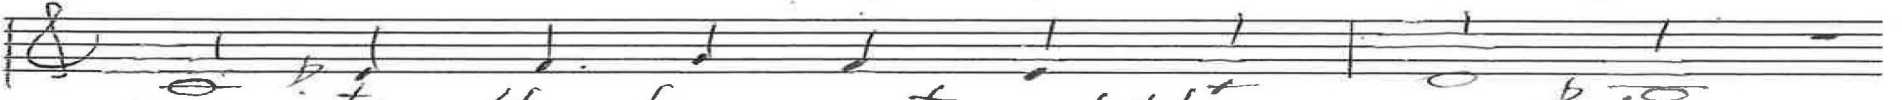

for those who went a-way in tears

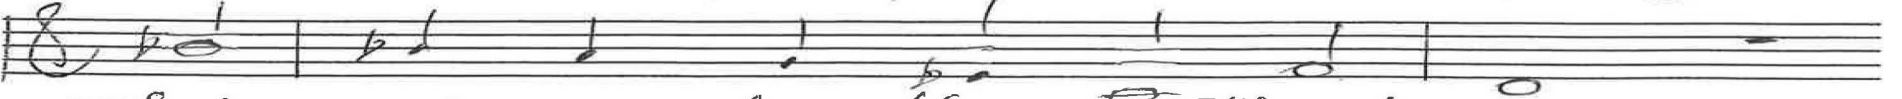

are sing-ing as it re-ap-pears.

Then was the a-gon-y of weep-ing,

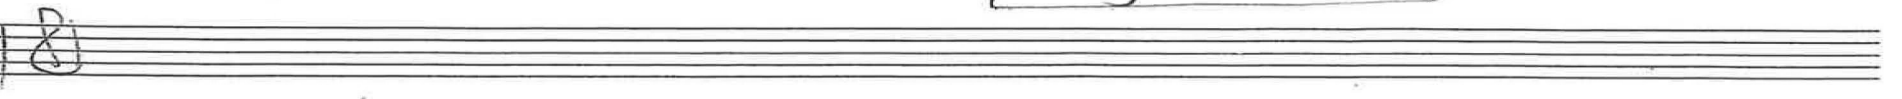

now it's the har-vest and the reap-ing.

Their seed was: when the cap-tive leaves,

the pro-duce, on re-turn-ing, sheaves.
