1. God, of my free-dom the up-hold-er, an-swer me and do not e-vade that yoke of or-deal on my shoul-der, eas-ing my trou-bles now I'm old-er.

Sim-ply hear me, the prayer I've made.

What makes us fall back dur-ing thun-ders that shut our ea-ger hearts so long?

When will we stop en-act-ing blun-ders?

Know that the Lord is work-ing won-ders and ushers me to ev-en-song.

trust the Lord as you come to place your faith in a rich rev-e-la-tion, proof of a hum-ble pre-sen-ta-tion, turn-ing eyes to a shin-ing face!

You've giv-en more joy to my be-ing than ev-er came from corn and wine.

When I lie down you're guar-an-tee-ing peace as I sleep while I'm a-gree-ing for God a-lone my soul would pine; - -
