Intonation

Handwritten musical notation for intonation.

1. By the Lord am I safe, be-side the foun-tains.

There-fore, how can you start to re-com-mend

I blun-der like a bird in-to the moun-tains?

See how the bows of bronze be-gin to bend,

their ar-rrows to the string, for bat-tle strain-ing.

What else can one be while the sie-ges send such ru-in, bas-ic build-ings none re-main-ing?

2. Up on high, in your sanc-tu-ar-y ho-ly,

look-ing back from the beau-ty of your throne,

you're search-ing out the brut-al ver-y slow-ly,

spit-ting the brim of sul-fur like a stone,

and serv-ing them a scorch-ing breath to swal-low.

Your bless-ing's be-stowed on the best that's sown,

and right-eous souls your sav-ing ways will fol-low.
