2. There is a riv-er mov-ing slow-ly mak-ing the ha-bi-ta-tion ho-ly with jus-tice that will sanc-ti-fy the cit-y of the Lord Most High.

God is the joy of her ex-ist-ence, dawn is the er-a of as-sist-ance.

When na-tions, ris-ing up, re-volt, e-man-ci-pa-tion gives the jolt.

3. Tot down the mir-a-cles, a-stound-ing, judg-ing the wick-ed and con-found-ing, the Lord would put an end to war, the bow and spear, for-ev-er-more,

'Pause and re-new your ex-pec-ta-tions, know I'm ex-alt-ed o-ver na-tions.'

The Lord of hosts is o-pen-eyed, the God of Ja-cob, on our side.
