1. To our Lord, a God a-maz-ing, sing your an-thems, O my soul!

All my life I'll keep on prais-ing, do my task and play my role.

Mor-tals end in ash and dust, can-not save and will not trust.

2. On that day when you're re-turn-ing my re-mains be-neath the sod, hap-py, those whose hearts are yearn-ing for a hope or-dained by God, made by you what we a-dore;

heav-en, earth and o-cean-shore.

3. God will serve, and be con-sist-ent, jus-tice, fair, to those who wail, to the hun-gry not be dis-tant, not far off to those in gaol, free the cap-tive, fug-i-tive, to the bent their straight-ness give.

4. Am-ple re-fuge to the stran-ger, or-phan, wid-ow, will you keep,

Shield-ing ac-o-lytes from dan-ger, feed-ing oth-ers what they reap, rul-ing Zi-on cen-ter stage, joy e-nough for ev-ery age! ~
