1. Your mar-vels we've known by the hear-ing

of sto-ries our clans were re-ver-ing,

re-un-ions held in form-er days,

in e-pochs of old that a-maze.

To set up our homes in the land,

You gave us lived-in hab-i-ta-tions!

You har-ried them with out-stretched hand

and furn-ished us room for mi-gra-tions.

2. We knew that our King would be reign-ing,

your love in our hearts be in-grain-ing.

'Twas not our im-pfe-ments but you

our foes with a-larm did im-bue.

My trust did not lie with our speed,

and still our vic-tories were in-creas-ing.

Our boast-ing was of you in-deed,

to hon-or your name, nev-er ceas-ing.

3. Yet now you con-vene us no long-er,

our en-e-mies thrive and grow strong-er.

You let them run us through the mill and plan-der our wealth at their will.

You treat us like prey that is caught,

it's us you scat-ter 'mongst the na-tions.

You sell your own for next to naught,

while neigh-bors in-sult our re-la-tions!

4. They're send-ing us doubt's and di's-grac-es,

de-ter-mined to laugh in our fac-es,

your peo-ple rend-ed in-to shreds,

with on-ly a toss of their heads.

We tried to stay true and sup-ply

your man-dates prop-er def-i-ni-tion.

You drove us out where jack-als die,

though faith was as strong as tra-di-tion.

5. We've got-ten in deep, in the wa-ter.

No won-der we're sheep for the slaugh-ter.

You act as if you're fast a-sleep,

and we're but a scrap on the heap.

You know what we know in our heart,

for-get our se-crets and our schem-ning,

and help us find a way to start,

with vig-or, your flair for re-deem-ing.
