Prelude Savior of the nations, come

1. My aim, O Lord, is not too high,

I o-ver-look peaks where I lie, take no part in the great af-fairs but trust in the scope of my prayers.

2. I try to keep my soul se-re-ne, as still as a child on the wean, one con-tent in its moth-er's arms.

who holds it in check from the harms.
