Intonation

18

1. As Je-sus passed a-long the sea,

18

they brought him one man who was cling-ing,

18

two ears that stayed deaf, al-ways ring-ing,

18

a tongue that was not real-ly free.

18

In spite of e-vil in-ter-fer-ing,

18

a rem-e-dy was then ap-plied,

18

and look-ing up the Mas-ter sighed,

18

'Be o-pened, Eph-pha-tha, your hear-ing!'

2. E-nig-ma's whol-ly dis-ap-peared!

Their ea-ger-ness brought on a ri-ot

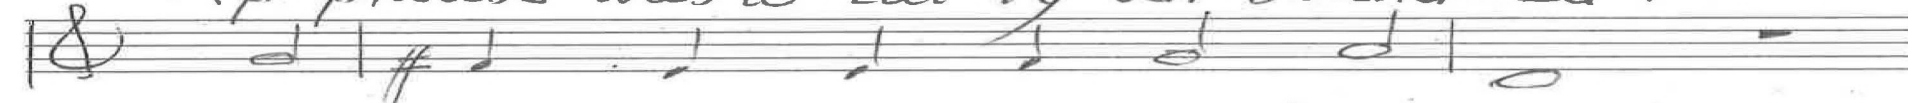

in spite of the plea to be qui-et.

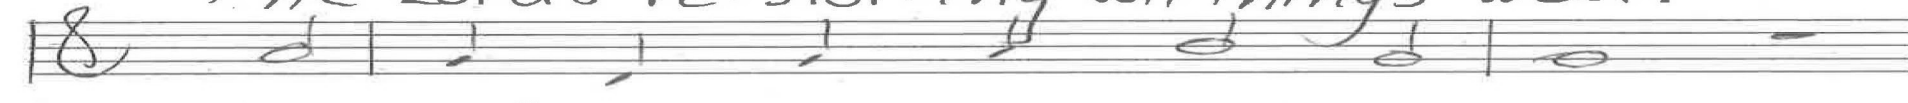

In spite of the noise, people cheered.

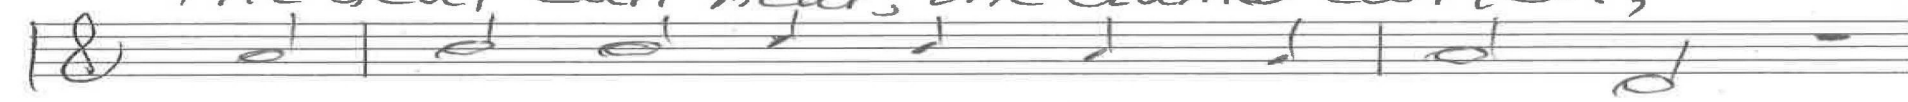

Ap-plause was to-tal-ly un-bound-ed.

'The Lord's re-stor-ing all things well.

The deaf can hear, the dumb can tell,

as prais-es, eve-ry-where, re-sound-ed.
